I. DESCRIPTION OF THE ACTION

On September 26, 2013, Plaintiff Shake Ter Petrossian ("Plaintiff") filed the State Court Action against the Defendant. A true and correct copy of the Summons, Complaint and Civil Case Cover Sheet (collectively, "Complaint") are attached hereto as Exhibit A. The Complaint was served on Defendant Macy's, Inc. on or about October 15, 2013. On October 24, 2013, Defendant served Plaintiff with a Request for a Statement of Damages. A true and correct copy of Defendant's Request for Statement of Damages is attached hereto as Exhibit B. On November 7, 2013, Plaintiff served Defendant with a Statement of Damages (Personal Injury or Wrongful Death). A true and correct copy of Plaintiff's Statement of Damages is attached hereto as Exhibit C. Defendant answered Plaintiff's Complaint on November 13, 2013. A true and correct copy of Defendant's Answer and Defenses to Plaintiff's Complaint for Damages is attached hereto as Exhibit D. No other process, pleadings, or orders have been served or filed in this action.

In her Complaint, Plaintiff alleges six causes of action based upon theories of disability discrimination and wrongful termination. (See generally Compl. Ex. A). Plaintiff seeks to recover general damages in the amount of $600,000, special damages in the amount of $750,000 and punitive damages in the amount of $250,000. (See Statement of Damages, Ex. C).

II. BASIS FOR REMOVAL (DIVERSITY JURISDICTION, 28 U.S.C. § 1332)

A. Diversity of Citizenship Exists

This action is between citizens of different States.

Here, Plaintiff is a citizen of the State of California. The citizenship of a natural person for diversity purposes is determined by the person's domicile. See Gilbert v. David, 235 U.S. 561, 569 (1915). A person is domiciled in a location "where he or she has established a fixed habitation or abode in a particular place, and [intends] to remain there permanently or indefinitely." Lew v. Moss, 797 F.2d 747, 749-50 (9th Cir. 1986). "The intention to remain may be established by factors such as: current residence; voting registration and practices; location of personal and real property; location of brokerage and bank accounts; location of spouse and family; membership in unions and other organizations; place of employment or business; driver's license and automobile registration; and payment of taxes." Kyung Park v. Holder, 572 F.3d 619, 625 (2009) (citing Lew, 797 F.2d at 750).

The application of the Lew factors to the instant matter demonstrates that Plaintiff is a citizen of the State of California. Plaintiff states in her Complaint that she is a resident of the County of Los Angeles in the State of California. (Compl. Ex. A, ¶ 1). Additionally, from 2006 until her termination in 2012, Plaintiff worked at Macy's West Stores, Inc.'s Burbank Town Center, located at 200 East Cypress Ave., Burbank, California, 91502-1149. (Compl. Ex. A, ¶ 9; Declaration of Avins, Exhibit During her employment with Macy's, Plaintiff's W-2 Wage and Tax E. ¶ 3). Statements listed her address first in Sun Valley, CA 91352 (from 2006 through 2008) and then in Glendale, CA 91205 (from 2009 through 2012). (Declaration of Linda Harding, Exhibit H, ¶ 3). Plaintiff's W-2 Wage and Tax Statements also demonstrate that Macy's withheld California State income taxes and disability insurance taxes from Plaintiff's pay. (Id.) Other documents signed by Plaintiff further demonstrate that Plaintiff's addresses during her employment with Macy's were either in Sun Valley, California or Glendale, California. (Avins Decl. Ex. E, ¶ 4). Prior to her employment at the Burbank Town Center store, Plaintiff attended Los Angeles City College in Los Angeles, California from 2002-2004 and Mashdots College in Glendale, California from 2004-2005. (Id.)

Defendant "Macy's" does not exist, and there is no incorporated entity named "Macy's" in the Macy's, Inc. family of businesses. (Declaration of Linda Balicki, Exhibit F,  $\P$  3).

Defendant Macy's, Inc. is a citizen of the States of Delaware, Ohio, and New York. (Balicki Decl. Ex. F, ¶¶ 4-5). A corporation is deemed to be a citizen of both its state of incorporation and the state in which it maintains its principal place of business. 28 U.S.C. § 1332(c)(1). At the time Plaintiff filed the State Court Action, Defendant Macy's, Inc. was and remains incorporated under the laws of the state of Delaware. (Balicki Decl. Ex. F, ¶¶ 4-5). Further, at the time Plaintiff filed the State Court Action, Macy's, Inc.'s principal places of business were and remain located in Cincinnati, Ohio and New York, New York. (Id).

Defendant Reva Sherman-Matthews¹ is a citizen of the State of Ohio. Ms. Sherman-Matthews is employed by Macy's Corporate Services, Inc. as an Accommodation/Disability Manager and maintains an office at 7 West Seventh Street, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202. (Declaration of Reva Sherman-Matthews, Exhibit G, ¶ 2). Ms. Sherman-Matthews was born in Cincinnati, Ohio and has resided in Cincinnati, Ohio since birth, with the exception of a few years during which she attended college at a location outside of Cincinnati, Ohio. (Id. at ¶ 5). Ms. Sherman-Matthews resides in Cincinnati, Ohio with her spouse and also has siblings who live in the State of Ohio. (Id. at ¶¶ 5-6). Ms. Sherman-Matthews is also registered to vote in the State of Ohio, pays Ohio state income taxes, holds an Ohio driver's license, has registered her car in the State of Ohio, keeps her personal and real property in the State of Ohio and has bank accounts which are located in the State of Ohio. (Id. at ¶¶ 7-11). Ms. Sherman-Matthews has never resided in the State of California and has never been a citizen of the state of California. (Id. at ¶ 4). Ms. Sherman-Matthews intends on residing in the State of Ohio permanently and indefinitely. (Id. at ¶ 5).

The defendants designated in the Complaint as Does 1-100 are fictitious defendants whose citizenship is to be disregarded for purposes of removal pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a). See also Soliman v. Philip Morris, Inc., 311 F.3d 966, 971 (9th Cir. 2002).

In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1332, there is complete diversity of citizenship because Plaintiff (California) and Defendants (Delaware, Ohio, and New York) are citizens of different States. See 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a)(1),(c)(1).

B. The Amount in Controversy Exceeds $75,000.00

In her Summons and Complaint, Plaintiff does not allege the total amount of damages sought, alleging only that the State Court Action is an unlimited civil case where the damages sought exceed $25,000 and that she seeks judgment against Defendants for compensatory damages, punitive damages, interest, costs of suit and attorneys' fees and costs. (See Compl. Ex. A). However, Plaintiff states in her Statement of Damages that she seeks the following damages in the State Court Action: $350,000 for pain, suffering and inconvenience, $250,000 for emotional distress, $100,000 for medical expenses (to date), $100,000 for future medical expenses (present value), $50,000 for loss of earnings (to date), $500,000 for loss of future earning capacity (present value), and $250,000 in punitive damages. (Statement of Damages, Ex. C).

Based on the Complaint, the Statement of Damages (which demonstrates that the amount in controversy exceeds the $75,000 removal threshold), and the citizenship of the parties, the requirements for diversity jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1332 are met.

III. THE NOTICE OF REMOVAL IS PROCEDURALLY PROPER

Based on the foregoing, this action is a civil action of which this Court has original jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332 and may be removed to this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1441 and 1446.

Venue is proper in this district and division because the Los Angeles County Superior Court is located within the federal Central District of California and this is the "district and division embracing the place where such action is pending." 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a).

As required by 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a), a copy of the Complaint and all other 1 papers served in the State Court Action as of the filing of this Notice of Removal are 2 attached hereto. 3 This Notice of Removal is filed within the time prescribed by 28 U.S.C. 4 §1446(b)(3) (within thirty (30) days after receipt by the defendant, through service or 5 otherwise, of a paper from which it may first be ascertained that the case is one which 6 is or has become removable). Plaintiff served the Complaint on October 15, 2013. 7 (See Compl. Ex. A). The case stated by the Summons and Complaint was not 8 removable because it did not indicate whether the amount in controversy exceeded the 9 $75,000 removal threshold. On November 7, 2013, Plaintiff's counsel served a 10 Statement of Damages, indicating that Plaintiff's damages exceed $75,000. (See 11 Statement of Damages, Ex. C). Defendant Macy's, Inc. received this Statement of 12 Damages on November 18, 2013. Defendant filed this Notice of Removal on 13 December 9, 2013. 14 True and correct copies of this Notice of Removal are being contemporaneously 15 served upon Plaintiff and filed with the Los Angeles County Superior Court of the 16 State of California, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d). 17 18 // 19 // 20 //21 // // 22 // 23 // 24 // 25 // 26 27 //

WHEREFORE, Defendant respectfully requests that this Court exercise jurisdiction over the above-captioned action and issue such further orders and processes as may be necessary herein. Dated: December 9, 2013 Attorneys for Defendant MACY'S,

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

- 9. Plaintiff SHAKE TER PETROSSIAN was first hired by EMPLOYER in or about 2006 as a full times sales associate at the Macy's location found at 200 East Cypress Avenue, Burbank, California. The plaintiff remained continuously employed at this location in the same capacity through the date of her wrongful termination.
- 10. On or about DECEMBER 7, 2011, the plaintiff sustained an injury at work which was promptly reported to the employer. At that time, she was in the stock room retrieving shoes for a waiting customer when a box of shoes fell off of the shelving causing and onto the plaintiff. To this end, one shoe fell out of the cascading boxes causing the heel of the shoe to strike the plaintiff's eye. In connection with this industrial injury, the plaintiff was diagnosed with the following medical conditions/physical disabilities: Amblyopia, Refractive, Astigmatism, Myopia, Presbyopia (age related vision difficulty) and Pinguecula, and capsular cataract. The plaintiff later suffered medical complications and increased injuries following surgeries for this work injury. The plaintiff filed a claim for worker's compensation benefits relating to this eye injury which was industrial in origin.
- 11. The plaintiff underwent the first of four eye surgeries on FEBRUARY 7, 2012 relating to this work injury. The plaintiff underwent a second eye surgery on or about FEBRUARY 17, 2012 relating to this work injury. The plaintiff underwent two more eye surgeries in 2012, one on MAY 5, 2012 and a fourth on AUGUST 2, 2012, both of which were relating to this work injury. With each surgery, plaintiff was aware of the risk of the loss of vision and retinal detachment, which risk plaintiff accepted as she intended to return to her position at Macy's. Following these surgeries, the plaintiff suffered retinal detachment affecting her vision, which was a risk of the surgical procedures performed for the work injury. This unexpected medical complication required the plaintiff to extend her leave of absence so that she could complete the appropriate post-operative recovery and rehabilitation. Plaintiff was ready, willing and able to return to work at the expiration of her medical leave of absence and fully expected to resume her former position in shoe sales, with some reasonable accommodation for her medical condition/physical disability.

12. At all times during the periods of her post-operative recovery, the plaintiff kept Macy's informed about her medical status and submitted to Macy's return to work notices or status reports relating to her medical leaves of absence for this work injury. There was no period of time that plaintiff was away from work other than relating to an approved medical leave of absence. The plaintiff was on an approved medical leave of absence following the FEBRUARY 2012 eye surgeries. On or about MARCH 8, 2012, Macys approved a leave of absence for the plaintiff through APRIL 11, 2012. The plaintiff underwent additional eye surgery for the work injury on or about MAY 5, 2012. On or about MAY 9, 2012, Macys approved a leave of absence for the plaintiff through JULY 8, 2012. The plaintiff underwent additional eye surgery for this work injury on AUGUST 2, 2012, and suffered post-operative complications to include retinal detachment. The plaintiff required additional time to recover following her eye surgery for the work injury. On or about AUGUST 23, 2012, Macys approved a leave of absence for the plaintiff through SEPTEMBER 9, 2012. On or about SEPTEMBER 13, 2012, Macy's approved a leave of absence for the plaintiff through NOVEMBER 26, 2012. On or about SEPTEMBER 13, 2012, the plaintiff requested reasonable accommodation from Macys to assist her in her return work at the expiration of her approved medical leave of absence. The defendant employer never responded to plaintiff's requests for accommodation at any time. The defendant employer never initiated any discussion about accommodations or the interactive process with the plaintiff at any time prior to her termination. It was plaintiff's intention to return to work on NOVEMBER 26, 2012 at the expiration of her approved medical leave of absence. On or about NOVEMBER 19, 2012, and prior to the expiration of the plaintiff's approved medical leave of absence which was confirmed as NOVEMBER 26, 2012, Macy's informed the plaintiff in writing that she was being summarily terminated effective NOVEMBER 26, 2012.

- 13. Prior to this injury, the plaintiff was a good and valuable employee who received praise and recognition for her work performance from co-workers, managers and supervisors at Macy's. Plaintiff received incremental pay increases, met Macy's commission and sales expectations or quotas, and dutifully served the interests of her employer without incident.
- 14. At all relevant times, plaintiff presented the EMPLOYER with her doctor's notes confirming her medical condition and/or physical disability as well as work restrictions and/or time off of work that was needed. Plaintiff always kept her supervisors apprised of her medical condition and physical disability, as well as her doctor's appointments and need for time off of work to accommodate her medical condition. Moreover, EMPLOYER had actual knowledge of plaintiff's medical condition, physical disability, and need for accommodations, through the plaintiff's worker's compensation matter which remains pending, as well as through information received by the employer from the plaintiff.
- 15. Despite her exemplary record, on NOVEMBER 19, 2012, plaintiff was wrongfully terminated, retaliated against, mistreated and discriminated on the basis of her medical condition and physical disability, without proper cause or justification following six years of loyal and dutiful service to her EMPLOYER.

17. At all times herein mention, Government Code Sections 12926 and 12940 et seq., were in full force and effect and binding upon EMPLOYER and defendants, and each of them. To this end, Section 12940(a) of the Government Code states that "it shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employer, because of the physical disability or medical condition of any person, to discriminate against that person." Any such physical disability or medical condition as referenced herein includes but is not limited to perceived disability or medical conditions within the meaning of Government Code Section 12926(m). Moreover, Government Code Section 12993(a) confirms that "FEHA declares that it its provisions shall be construed liberally for the accomplishment of the purposes thereof."

The plaintiff alleges that defendants wrongfully discriminated against, retaliated 18. and ultimately terminated her based on her medical condition and/or physical disability or her perceived physical disability or medical condition and further alleges as follows: (1) That the defendants were the EMPLOYER of the plaintiff; (2) That the plaintiff was an employee of the defendants; (3) That the defendants knew of the plaintiff's medical condition and/or physical disability by virtue of her having reported the medical condition and/or physical disability to the employer and permitted the employer full access to her medical records; (4) That the plaintiff was able to perform her job duties with reasonable accommodation for her medical condition and/or physical disability; (5) That the plaintiff was subjected to various adverse employment actions by the defendants; (6) That the defendants failed and refused to reasonably accommodate or engage in the interactive process with the plaintiff; (7) That the plaintiff's medical condition and/or physical disability [or defendant's perception or belief that plaintiff had a medical condition or physical disability] was a motivating reason for the defendant's termination of plaintiff; (8) That the plaintiff was harmed by the defendant's wrongful and unjustified discrimination and termination both emotionally and financially; (9) That the defendant's wrongful discrimination and termination of the plaintiff was a substantial factor in causing the plaintiff's harm, injury and damages.

19. A substantial or motivating factor in defendant's termination of the plaintiff and its failure to reasonably accommodate plaintiff or otherwise engage in a good faith interactive process with her, is and was the plaintiff's physical disability, perceived disability, or medical condition (eye injury, retinal detachment and partial loss of vision) as set forth herein, her having filed a claim for industrial injuries relating to the subject injury, and her now being perceived by defendants as an unfit and undesirable employee due to her medical condition and physical disability.

- 20. In so failing and refusing to reasonably accommodate the plaintiff, defendants engaged in an unlawful employment practice within the meaning of Government Code Sections 12940(a) and 12926 in violation of the California Fair Employment & Housing Act found at Government Code Section 12900 et seq.. Defendants engaged in various adverse employment actions towards the plaintiff culminating in plaintiff's termination.
- 21. As such, defendants are liable for punitive damages under Civil Code § 3294 arising from physical disability/medical condition discrimination against plaintiff as alleged under Government Code §§ 12926 and 12940(j)(1). At all times relevant, said disability discrimination against plaintiff and wrongful termination of plaintiff was fraudulent, malicious and oppressive as defined by Civil Code § 3294.
- 22. In the event this Court finds that defendants are the sole and true employer entity of the plaintiff, then said defendants are liable for punitive damages under Civil Code § 3294, for the discriminatory treatment against plaintiff in violation of Government Code § 12940(a).
- 23. The discriminatory and retaliatory treatment of plaintiff in violation of Government Code § 12940(a); and discrimination of plaintiff on the basis of her medical condition and/or physical disability in violation of Government Code §§ 12926 and 12940(j)(1) were carried out by managerial and supervisory employees of defendants, acting in a despicable, deliberate, cold, callous, and intentional manner in order to humiliate, harm, injure and damage plaintiff. Plaintiff is entitled to recover punitive damages from defendants pursuant to Civil Code § 3294, in an amount according to proof at trial.
- 24. At all times relevant, defendants were aware of or otherwise ratified the unlawful discrimination on the basis of medical condition and/or physical disability against plaintiff by management and supervisory personnel as alleged herein, and as carried out by defendants' management, supervisory employees and other managing agents.

- 25. As a direct, proximate and legal result of the aforesaid acts of defendants, plaintiff has lost and will continue to lose earnings and other employment benefits (i.e., medical, dental, health insurance, vision, retirement, pension, 401k, etc.), and has suffered and or will suffer other actual, consequential and incidental financial losses, in an amount to be proven at the time of trial. Plaintiff claims such amounts as damages together with prejudgment interest pursuant to Civil Code §§ 3287, 3288 and/or any other provision of law providing for prejudgment interest.
- 26. As a direct, proximate and legal result of the aforesaid acts of defendants, plaintiff has become mentally upset, severely emotionally distressed, frustrated, depressed, embarrassed, fragile, humiliated and aggravated. Plaintiff claims non-economic or general damages for such mental and emotional distress and aggravation in a sum in excess of the jurisdictional minimum of the Superior Court.

Non-economic damages shall include but are not limited to the fear, humiliation, emotional distress, and mental, or emotional or physical pain and anguish that have been and/or will foreseeably be experienced by PLAINTIFF, all to her damage and detriment, in a sum according to proof at trial. Defendants engaged in various adverse employment actions towards the plaintiff culminating in plaintiff's termination.
- 68. PLAINTIFF is entitled to any and all compensatory and punitive damages recoverable under California law. Plaintiff claims such amounts as damages together with prejudgment interest pursuant to Civil Code §§ 3287, 3288 and/or any other provision of law providing for prejudgment interest.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION FOR VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA FAMILY RIGHTS ACT AGAINST DEFENDANTS MACY'S, MACY'S INC. AND DOES 1 THROUGH INCLUSIVE.

- 69. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference the above in this Complaint, Paragraphs 1 through 68, as though fully set forth herein.
- 70. MACY'S and MACY'S INC. were employers subject to the California Family Rights Act (CFRA), Government Code section 12945.2, which provides that "[i]t shall be an unlawful employment practice for any employer to refuse to grant a request by any employee with more than 12 months of service with the employer, and who has at least 1,250 hours of service with the employer during the previous 12-month period, to take up to a total of 12 workweeks in any 12-month period for family care and medical leave. Family care and medical leave requested pursuant to this subdivision shall not be deemed to have been granted unless the employer provides the employee, upon granting the leave request, a guarantee of employment in the same or a comparable position upon the termination of the leave..." "Medical leave" includes "leave because of an employee's own serious health condition" under the CFRA.
- 71. At all times material hereto, plaintiff had at least 1,250 hours of service with the corporate defendants during the 12 month period prior to her request for medical leave.
- 72. Government Code section 12945.2 further provides, "It shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employer to refuse to hire, or to discharge, fine, suspend, expel, or discriminate against, any individual because of an individual's exercise of the right to family care and medical leave.
- 73. In acting and omitting to act as alleged hereinabove, defendants and each of them continuously and repeatedly violated the CFRA and committed unfair employment practices, including but not limited to, by denying plaintiff's request for medical leave as originally requested, by failing to timely process plaintiff's request for medical leave, by failing to notify plaintiff of the disposition of her request for medical leave, and by retaliating against plaintiff for exercising her right to medical leave.

- 74. By reason and in furtherance of said violations of law and unlawful employment practices, defendants precluded the plaintiff from returning to work as she had expected to do at the expiration of her medical leave of absence for the work injury she sustained.
- 75. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that defendants' desire to retaliate against plaintiff for her exercise of her rights under the CFRA was a substantial motivating reason for the decision by defendants, and each of them, to terminate plaintiff.
- 76. As a direct, proximate and legal result of defendant EMPLOYER's unlawful employment practices as alleged above, PLAINTIFF suffered and continues to suffer economic and non-economic damages to an extent and amount according to proof at the time of trial. Economic damages shall include, but are not limited to, any and all claims for lost wages, benefits, salary increases and income, both past and future. Non-economic damages shall include but are not limited to the fear, humiliation, emotional distress, and mental, or emotional or physical pain and anguish that have been and/or will foreseeably be experienced by PLAINTIFF, all to her damage and detriment, in a sum according to proof at trial. Defendants engaged in various adverse employment actions towards the plaintiff culminating in plaintiff's termination.
- 77. PLAINTIFF is entitled to any and all compensatory and punitive damages recoverable under California law. Plaintiff claims such amounts as damages together with prejudgment interest pursuant to Civil Code §§ 3287, 3288 and/or any other provision of law providing for prejudgment interest. Plaintiff also seeks attorney's fees as permitted by law.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

CM-010

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties In Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiffs designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA 10 11 COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES - CENTRAL DISTRICT 12 SHAKE TER PETROSSIAN, Case No. BC513772 13 Plaintiff. DEFENDANT'S ANSWER AND DEFENSES TO PLAINTIFF'S 14 v. COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES 15 MACY'S, MACY'S, INC. REVA Complaint Filed: September 26, 2013 SHERMAN-MATTHEWS, AND DOES 1 Trial Date: To be determined 16 THROUGH 100 INCLUSIVE. 17 Defendants. In answer to Plaintiff SHAKE TER PETROSSIAN's ("Plaintiff") Complaint ("Complaint"), 18 Defendant MACY'S, INC. (hereinafter "Defendant"), subject to and without waiving its right to 19 20 compel arbitration, admits, denies, and alleges as follows: 21 GENERAL DENIAL Pursuant to California Code of Civil Procedure § 431.30, Defendant generally denies each 22 23 and every allegation of Plaintiff's Complaint, further denies that Plaintiff has been damaged in any way whatsoever, and further specifically denies that Plaintiff sustained injury, damage, or loss by 24 reason of any conduct, action, error, or omission on the part of Defendant or any agent, employee, or 25 other person acting under Defendant's authority or control. Defendant further denies that Plaintiff is 26 entitled to any legal or equitable relief in any amount or manner whatsoever from Defendant. This 27 28

general denial to the Complaint is filed without prejudice to Defendant's right to file amended 1 answers, including additional defenses, and is filed without prejudice to or waiver of Defendant's 2 3 right to compel arbitration of Plaintiff's claims. 4 DEFENSES For further answer and separate defenses to Plaintiff's Complaint, and each and every 5 6 purported cause of action therein, Defendant alleges as follows: 7 FIRST DEFENSE 8 (Entire Action Subject to Binding Arbitration) Plaintiff's Complaint and claims therein, and this entire action, are subject to binding 9 arbitration pursuant to Plaintiff's agreement to arbitrate all disputes arising from or related to her 10 employment with Defendant; as such this Court lacks jurisdiction to hear Plaintiff's claims. 11 12 SECOND DEFENSE 13 (Failure to State a Claim) Plaintiff's Complaint fails to allege facts sufficient to constitute claims for relief against 14 15 Defendant. 16 THIRD DEFENSE 17 (Failure to Exhaust Administrative Remedies) Plaintiff's Complaint, claims, and damages are barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff 18 19 failed to exhaust the required administrative remedies. 20 FOURTH DEFENSE 21 (Failure to Mitigate/Doctrine of Avoidable Consequences) 22 Plaintiff's Complaint, claims, and damages are barred in whole or in part pursuant to the doctrine of avoidable consequences and/or because Plaintiff failed to mitigate, minimize, or 23 24 otherwise avoid losses, damages, costs, or expenses. 25 FIFTH DEFENSE 26 (Waiver) 27 Plaintiff's Complaint, claims, and damages are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of 28 waiver.

1 SIXTH DEFENSE 2 (Estoppel) Plaintiff's Complaint, claims, and damages are barred in whole or in part by estoppel. 3 4 SEVENTH DEFENSE 5 (At-Will Employment) Plaintiff was an at-will employee under California law, and therefore her employment could 6 7 be terminated, and her compensation and job responsibilities modified, at-will. 8 EIGHTH DEFENSE 9 (Performance of Duties and Obligations) Defendant alleges, without admitting to the existence of any duties or obligations as alleged 10 in the Complaint, that any duty or obligation, contractual or otherwise, which Plaintiff claims is 11 12 owed by Defendant, has been fully performed, satisfied, or discharged. 13 NINTH DEFENSE 14 (Plaintiff's Own Conduct and/or Fault of Others) Plaintiff's Complaint, claims, and damages are barred in whole or in part because if Plaintiff 15 sustained any damage, injury, and/or detriment as alleged in the Complaint, such injury was caused 16 by her own conduct and/or the fault of others for whose conduct Defendant is not liable. 17 18 TENTH DEFENSE 19 (Unclean Hands) Plaintiff's Complaint, claims, and damages are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of 20 21 unclean hands. 22 ELEVENTH DEFENSE 23 (Failure to Take Advantage of Safeguards) Defendant had, at all relevant times, an anti-discrimination policy and complaint procedure in 24 place and Plaintiff failed to avail herself of the internal procedures for complaints of discrimination. 25 Plaintiff's damages, if any, are reduced to the extent Plaintiff failed to take advantage of her 26 employer's safeguards to avoid and eliminate alleged discrimination, which failure to act by Plaintiff 27 28 caused or contributed to the claimed damages, if any.

1 TWELFTH DEFENSE 2 (Failure to State a Claim; No Punitive Damages) Plaintiff's Complaint fails to state facts sufficient to constitute a claim for punitive damages 3 against Defendant. Furthermore, Defendant did not commit oppressive, intentional, or malicious acts 4 with respect to Plaintiff, did not engage in despicable conduct with respect to Plaintiff, did not 5 authorize or ratify any such acts, and did not have advance knowledge of the unfitness of any 6 employee and employ that employee with a conscious disregard of the rights and safety of others. 7 8 THIRTEENTH DEFENSE 9 (Actions Justified) Any conduct attributed to Defendant was justified, made in good faith, for legitimate, non-10 discriminatory and non-retaliatory business reasons, was protected by the managerial privilege, 11 12 and/or was otherwise privileged. 13 FOURTEENTH DEFENSE 14 (Actions In Conformity with Laws; Same Decision) At all times relevant, Defendant acted in good faith and did not violate any rights Plaintiff 15 may have under federal, state, or local laws, rules, regulations, or guidelines. However, even 16 assuming arguendo a discriminatory motive could be attributed to any adverse employment action 17 (which Defendant denies), Defendant would have made the same decision absent any improper 18 19 motive, thereby barring and/or limiting Plaintiff's damages. 20 FIFTEENTH DEFENSE 21 (After-Acquired Evidence) To the extent Defendant obtains after-acquired evidence of wrongdoing by Plaintiff through 22 discovery or otherwise, the Complaint and claims therein are barred by the doctrine of after-acquired 23 evidence, or the doctrine of after-acquired evidence limits and reduces Plaintiff's alleged damages. 24 25 111 26 III27 ///

Defendant's Answer and Defenses to Plaintiff's Complaint for Damages

1 SIXTEENTH DEFENSE 2 (No Causation) The Complaint and claims therein cannot be maintained against Defendant because Plaintiff 3 has failed to allege the requisite causal connection between any alleged protected activities and any 4 5 alleged adverse employment action. 6 SEVENTEENTH DEFENSE 7 (Punitive Damages Would Violate Defendant's Constitutional Rights) Plaintiff is not entitled to recover any punitive damages because any award in this action 8 would violate Defendant's rights to due process and/or equal protection under the United States 9 10 and/or California Constitutions. 11 EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE 12 (Justification) Plaintiff's Complaint, claims, and damages are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of 13 justification. 14 15 NINETEENTH DEFENSE 16 (Undue Hardship) Plaintiff's Complaint, claims, and damages are barred in whole or in part because any alleged 17 accommodation which Plaintiff claims should have been offered was above and beyond what 18 Defendant was reasonably able to provide and would have caused Defendant undue hardship. 19 20 TWENTIETH DEFENSE 21 (Adverse Action Based on Factors Other than Disability) The Complaint and each cause of action set forth therein cannot be maintained against 22 23 Defendant because any adverse employment action suffered by Plaintiff was based upon reasonable 24 factors other than her alleged disability. 25 TWENTY-FIRST DEFENSE 26 (Offset) 27 The Complaint and each cause of action set forth therein cannot be maintained against 28 Defendant because any recovery to which Plaintiff might otherwise allegedly be entitled must be 5.

offset by any disability or unemployment benefits and/or other monies and/or benefits Plaintiff has 1 2 received or will receive. 3 TWENTY-SECOND DEFENSE 4 (Statute of Limitations) The Complaint and each cause of action set forth therein are barred, in whole or in part, by 5 the applicable statute(s) of limitations. 6 7 TWENTY-THIRD DEFENSE 8 (Workers' Compensation Exclusivity) The Complaint and each cause of action set forth therein seeking damages for emotional 9 and/or physical injury are preempted and barred by the exclusive remedy provisions of the California 10 Workers' Compensation Act, California Labor Code § 3600, et seq., and California Labor Code § 11 12 132a, in that: (1) the injuries complained of occurred when both Plaintiff and Defendant were subject to California Labor Code §§ 3600-3601; (2) at the time of the alleged injuries, Plaintiff was 13 performing services incidental to her employment and was acting within the course and scope of her 14 employment; and (3) Plaintiff alleges the injuries were caused by her employment, and accordingly, 15 16 this Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction over said claims. 17 TWENTY-FOURTH DEFENSE 18 (Plaintiff Is Not a Qualified Individual with a Disability) 19 Plaintiff's Complaint, claims, and damages are barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff 20 was not a qualified individual with a disability during the time periods that she alleges Defendant 21 violated the Fair Employment and Housing Act. 22 TWENTY-FIFTH DEFENSE 23 (Improper Parties) 24 Plaintiff's Complaint, claims, and damages are barred in whole or in part because Plaintiff 25 has sued one or more improper parties. 26 111 27 111 28 /// 6.

1 RESERVATION OF RIGHTS Because Plaintiff's Complaint is couched in conclusory terms and discovery has not yet 2 begun, Defendant cannot fully anticipate all defenses that may be applicable to this action. 3 Accordingly, Defendant's right to assert additional defenses, if and to the extent that such defenses 4 5 are applicable, is hereby reserved. 6 PRAYER WHEREFORE, having generally denied Plaintiff's Complaint and having alleged defenses, 7 8 Defendant prays: 9 That this action be referred in its entirety to binding arbitration and stayed: 1. 2. That Plaintiff take nothing by her Complaint; 10 For judgment in Defendant's favor and dismissal of all of Plaintiff's claims: 11 3. 12 4. To recover its costs and attorneys' fees incurred in this action; and 5. 13 For such other and further relief as the Court may deem proper. 14 GONZALEZ SAGGIO & HARLAN LLP 15 16 Dated: November 13, 2013 CRISTINA D. Accommodation/Disability Leave Office

August 23, 2012

Ms. Shake Ter Petrossian REDACTED

Glendale, CA 91205

Dear Shake:

This letter is in response to your request for an extension to your medical leave of absence as a reasonable accommodation. Based on an analysis of the August 7, 2012, Work Status Report from Robert J. Schechter, M.D., your request for an extension to your leave is granted through September 9, 2012, with the expectation that you will be able to return to work at Macy's on September 10, 2012.

You have been on a continuous medical leave of absence since February 14, 2012, and exhausted all eligible entitlement under Macy's leave policy on August 13, 2012. The Company may grant an extension to a leave as a reasonable accommodation under the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended (ADAAA), if the treating health care provider certifies the additional leave time will help facilitate your recovery and return to work on a date in the reasonably foreseeable future.

Please confirm your return to work date with HR Services by accessing In-site, selecting Leave of Absence under the Life Events menu option, then selecting the Notification for Return to Work option, or fax a copy of the release for return to work to HR services at 1-800-310-7740. Please engage in a two-way conversation with your Human Resources Manager to discuss any restrictions you may have upon your return to work so that an assessment can be made regarding the need for a reasonable accommodation.

Remember if you are released to return to work with restrictions, we require that the conversation with your Human Resources Manager—take place prior to your return because the recommended accommodation(s) must be approved by the Office of Accommodation Disability Leave Management before you can actually work.

If you are unable to return to work at the end of the leave, we may not be able to grant any additional extension to your medical leave of absence, due to the indefinite nature of your return to work date.

You must contact HR Services at 1-800-234-6229 (MACY), if you have questions about your leave or benefits.

Sincerely.

Ms. Shake Petrossian REDACTED Glendale, CA 91205

Dear Shake:

This letter is in response to your request for a second extension to your medical leave of absence as a reasonable accommodation.

According to the latest Work Status Report from Dr. Robert Schechter dated August 7, 2012, you are placed off work through October 28, 2012. Dr. Schechter did not explain how the extended leave would enable you to return to work and perform the essential functions of your position. We are willing to grant your request for a second extension to your leave, but we need your doctor to explain how this additional time will allow you to return to work on a date in the reasonable foreseeable future, since we cannot extend your leave indefinitely.

Please have the attached Reasonable Accommodation Inquiry letter completed by Dr. Schechter and returned to our office no later than September 27, 2012. If you need additional time to provide the completed information, you will need to contact our office on or before that date at (513) 579-7990. Upon receipt of the response to this letter, we will determine if we are able to grant your request for a second extension to your leave of absence as a reasonable accommodation. The information may be faxed to my attention at: (513) 562-6972, or mail to:

Macy's Accommodation Disability Leave Management Office Attn: Nancy Gruen 7 West Seventh St., 13th Floor Cincinnati, OH 45202

Please note without having this information we would be unable to consider any additional extension to your medical leave of absence and would process your separation from the company on September 27, 2012, as not returning from leave.

If you have any questions about your leave, you may contact the HR Services Leave of Absence Team at: (800) 234-MACY (6229).

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and 2 and ask your employer to correct your employment record. Be sure to ask the employer to file Form W-2c, Corrected Wage and Tax Statement, with the Social Security Administration (SSA) to correct any name, SSN, or money amount error reported to the SSA on Form W-2. If your name and SSN are correct but are not the same as shown on your social security card, you should ask for a new card that displays your correct name at any SSA office or by calling 1-800-772-1213. You also may visit the SSA at www.socialsecurity.gov.

Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage (if such cost is provided by the employer). The reporting in Box 12, using Code DD, of the cost of employer-sponsored health coverage is for your information only. The amount reported with Code DD is not taxable.

Credit for excess taxes. If you had more than one employer in 2012 and more than $4,624.20 in social security and/or Tier I railroad retirement (RRTA) taxes were withheld, you may be able to claim a credit for the excess against your federal income tax. If you had more than one railroad employer and more than $3,192.90 in Tier II RRTA tax was withheld, you also may be able to claim a credit. See your Form 1040 or Form 1040A instructions and Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax

Instructions for Employee

Box 1. Enter this amount on the wages line of your tax return.

Box 2. Enter this amount on the federal income tax withheld line of your tax return. Box 8. This amount is not included in boxes 1, 3, 5, or 7. For information on how to report tips on your tax return, see your Form 1040 instructions.

Unless you have records that show you did not receive the amount reported in box 8 as allocated tips, you must file Form 4137, Social Security and Medicare Tax on Unreported Tip Income, with your income tax return to report the allocated tip amount. On Form 4137 you will figure the social security and Medicare tax owed on the allocated tips shown on your Form(s) W-2 that you must report as income and on other tips you did not report to your employer. By filing Form 4137. your social security tips will be credited to your social security record (used to figure your benefits).

Any amount over $5,000 is also included in box 1. Complete Form 2441, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, to compute any taxable and nontaxable amounts.

Box 11. This amount is (a) reported in box 1 if it is a distribution made to you from a nonqualified deferred compensation or nongovernmental section 457(b) plan or (b) included in box 3 and/or 5 if it is a prior year deferral under a nonqualified or section 457(b) plan that became taxable for social security and Medicare taxes this year because there is no longer a substantial risk of forfeiture of your right to the deferred amount.

Box 12. The following list explains the codes shown in box 12. You may need this information to complete your tax return. #### Notice to Employee

Refund. Even if you do not have to file a tax return, you should file to get a refund if box 2 shows federal income tax withheld or if you can take the earned income credit.

Earned income credit (EIC). You may be able to take the EIC for 2011 if (a) you do not have a qualifying child and you earned less than $13,660 ($18,740 if married filing jointly), (b) you have one qualifying child and you earned less than $36,052 ($41,132 if married filing jointly), (c) you have two qualifying children and you earned less than $40,964 ($46,044 if married filing jointly), or (d) you have three or more qualifying children and you earned less than $43,998 ($49,078 if married filing jointly). You and any qualifying children must have valid social security numbers (SSNs). You cannot take the EIC if your investment income is more than $3,150. Any EIC that is more than your tax liability is refunded to you, but only if you file a tax return.

Clergy and religious workers. If you are not subject to social security and Medicare taxes, see Pub. 517, Social Security and Other Information for Members of the Clergy and Religious Workers.

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and 2 and ask your employer to correct your employment record. Be sure to ask the employer to file Form W-2c, Corrected Wage and Tax Statement, with the Social Security Administration (SSA) to correct any name, SSN, or money amount error reported to the SSA on Form W-2. If your name and SSN are correct but are not the same as shown on your social security card, you should ask for a new card that displays your correct name at any SSA office or by calling 1-800-772-1213. You also may visit the SSA at www.socialsecurity.gov.

Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage (if such cost is provided by the employer). The reporting in Box 12, using Code DD, of the cost of employer-sponsored health coverage is for your information only. The amount reported with Code DD is not taxable.

Credit for excess taxes. If you had more than one employer in 2011 and more than $4,485.60 in social security and/or Tier I railroad retirement (RRTA) taxes were withheld, you may be able to claim a credit for the excess against your federal income tax. If you had more than one railroad employer and more than $3,088.80 in Tier II RRTA tax was withheld, you also may be able to claim a credit. See your Form 1040 or Form 1040A instructions and Pub. 505. Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax

Instructions for Employee

Box 1. Enter this amount on the wages line of your tax return. Box 2. Enter this amount on the federal income tax withheld line of your tax return. Box 8. This amount is not included in boxes 1, 3, 5, or 7. For information on how to report tips on your tax return, see your Form 1040 instructions.

Unless you have records that show you did not receive the amount reported in box 8 as allocated tips, you must file Form 4137, Social Security and Medicare Tax on Unreported Tip Income, with your income tax return to report the allocated tip amount. On Form 4137 you will figure the social security and Medicare tax owed on the allocated tips shown on your Form(s) W-2 that you must report as income and on other tips you did not report to your employer. By filing Form 4137, your social security tips will be credited to your social security record (used to figure your benefits).

Box 10. This amount is the total dependent care benefits that your employer paid to you or incurred on your behalf (including amounts from a section 125 (cafeteria) plan). Any amount over $5,000 is also included in box 1. Complete Form 2441, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, to compute any taxable and nontaxable amounts.

Box 11. This amount is (a) reported in box 1 if it is a distribution made to you from a nonqualified deferred compensation or nongovernmental section 457(b) plan or (b) included in box 3 and/or 5 if it is a prior year deferral under a nonqualified or section 457(b) plan that became taxable for social security and Medicare taxes this year because there is no longer a substantial risk of forfeiture of your right to the deferred return. Elective deferrals (codes D. E. F, and S) and designated Roth contributions (codes AA, BB, and EE) under all plans are generally limited to a total of $16,500 ($11,500 if you only have SIMPLE plans; $19,500 for section 403(b) plans if you qualify for the 15-year rule explained in Pub. 571). Deferrals under code G are limited to $16,500. Deferrals under code H are limited to $7,000.

However, if you were at least age 50 in 2011, your employer may have allowed an additional deferral of up to $5,500 ($2,500 for section 401(k)(11) and 408(p) SIMPLE plans). This additional deferral amount is not subject to the overall limit on elective deferrals. For code G, the limit on elective deferrals may be higher for the last 3 years before you reach retirement age. Contact your plan administrator for more information. Amounts in excess of the overall elective deferral limit must be included in income. See the "Wages, Salaries, Tips, etc." line instructions for Form 1040.

Note. If a year follows code D through H, S, Y, AA, BB, or EE, you made a make-up pension contribution for a prior year(s) when you were in military service. To figure whether you made excess deferrals, consider these amounts for the year shown, not the current year. If no year is shown, the contributions are for the current year. A-Uncollected social security or RRTA tax on tips. Include this tax on Form 1040. See "Total Tax" in the Form 1040 instructions. B—Uncollected Medicare tax on tips.

Notice to Employee

Refund. Even if you do not have to file a tax return, you should file to get a refund if box 2 shows federal income tax withheld or if you can take the earned income credit.

Earned income credit (EIC). You must file a tax return if any amount is shown in box 9.

You may be able to take the EIC for 2010 if (a) you do not have a qualifying child and you earned less than $13,460 ($18,470 if married filing jointly), (b) you have one qualifying child and you earned less than $35,535 ($40,545 if married filing jointly), (c) you have two qualifying children and you earned less than $40,363 ($45,373 if married filing jointly), or (d) you have three or more qualifying children and you earned less than $43,352 ($48,362 if married filing jointly). You and any qualifying children must have valid social security numbers (SSNs). You cannot take the EIC if your investment income is more than $3,100. Any EIC that is more than your tax liability is refunded to you, but only if you file a tax return. If you have at least one qualifying child, you may get as much as $1,830 of the EIC in advance by completing Form W-5, Earned Income Credit Advance Payment Certificate, and giving it to your employer.

Clergy and religious workers. If you are not subject to social security and Medicare taxes, see Pub. 517, Social Security and Other Information for Members of the Clergy and Religious Workers.

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and 2 and ask your employer to correct your employment record. Be sure to ask the employer to file Form W-2c, Corrected Wage and Tax Statement, with the Social Security Administration (SSA) to correct any name, SSN, or money amount error reported to the SSA on Form W-2. If your name and SSN are correct but are not the same as shown on your social security card, you should ask for a new card that displays your correct name at any SSA office or by calling 1-800-772-1213. You also may visit the SSA at www.socialsecurity.gov.

Credit for excess taxes. If you had more than one employer in 2010 and more than $6,621.60 in social security and/or Tier I railroad retirement (RRTA) taxes were withheld, you may be able to claim a credit for the excess against your federal income tax. If you had more than one railroad employer and more than $3,088.80 in Tier II RRTA tax was withheld, you also may be able to claim a credit. See your Form 1040 or Form 1040A instructions and Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Instructions for Employee (Also see Notice to Employee, on the back of Copy B.)

- Box 1. Enter this amount on the wages line of your tax return.
- Box 2. Enter this amount on the federal income tax withheld line of your tax return.
- Box 8. This amount is not included in boxes 1, 3, 5, or 7. For information on how to report tips on your tax return, see your Form 1040 instructions.
- Box 9. Enter this amount on the advance earned income credit payments line of your Form 1040 or Form 1040A.
- Box 10. This amount is the total dependent care benefits that your employer paid to you or incurred on your behalf (including amounts from a section 125 (cafeteria) plan). Any amount over $5,000 is also included in box 1. Complete Form 2441, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, to compute any taxable and nontaxable amounts.
- Box 11. This amount is (a) reported in box 1 if it is a distribution made to you from a nonqualified deferred compensation or nongovernmental section 457(b) plan or (b) included in box 3 and/or 5 if it is a prior year deferral under a nonqualified or section 457(b) plan that became taxable for social security and Medicare taxes this year because there is no longer a substantial risk of forfeiture of your right to the deferred amount.
- Box 12. The following list explains the codes shown in box 12. You may need this information to complete your tax return. Elective deferrals (codes D, E, F, and S) and designated Roth contributions (codes AA and BB) under all plans are generally limited to a total of $16,500 ($11,500 if you only have SIMPLE plans; $19,500 for section 403(b) plans if you qualify for the 15-year rule explained in Pub. 571). Deferrals under code G are limited to $16,500. Deferrals under code H are limited to $7,000.

However, if you were at least age 50 in 2010, your employer may have allowed an additional deferral of up to $5,500 ($2,500 for section 401(k)(11) and 408(p) SIMPLE plans). This additional deferral amount is not subject to the overall limit on elective deferrals. For code G, the limit on elective deferrals may be higher for the last 3 years before you reach retirement age. Contact your plan administrator for more information. Amounts in excess of the overall elective deferral limit must be included in income. See the "Wages, Salaries, Tips, etc." line instructions for Form 1040.

Note. If a year follows code D through H, S, Y, AA, or BB, you made a make-up pension contribution for a prior year(s) when you were in military service. To figure whether you made excess deferrals, consider these amounts for the year shown, not the current year. If no year is shown, the contributions are for the current year.

- A—Uncollected social security or RRTA tax on tips. Include this tax on Form 1040. See "Total Tax" in the Form 1040 instructions.
- B—Uncollected Medicare tax on tips. Include this tax on Form 1040. See "Total Tax" in the Form 1040 instructions.

Notice to Employee

Refund. Even if you do not have to file a tax return, you should file to get a refund if box 2 shows federal income tax withheld or if you can take the earned income credit.

Earned income credit (EIC). You must file a tax return if any amount is shown in box 9.

You may be able to take the EIC for 2009 if (a) you do not have a qualifying child and you earned less than $13,440 ($16,560 if married filing jointly), (b) you have one qualifying child and you earned less than $35,463 ($38,583 if married filing jointly), or (c) you have more than one qualifying child and you earned less than $40,295 ($43,415 if married filing jointly). You and any qualifying children must have valid social security numbers (SSNs). You cannot take the EIC if your investment income is more than $3,100. Any EIC that is more than your tax liability is refunded to you, but only if you file a tax return. If you have at least one qualifying child, you may get as much as $1,826 of the EIC in advance by completing Form W-5, Earned Income Credit Advance Payment Certificate; and giving it to your employer.

Clergy and religious workers. If you are not subject to social security and Medicare taxes, see Publication 517, Social Security and Other Information for Members of the Clergy and Religious Workers.

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and 2 and ask your employer to correct your employment record. Be sure to ask the employer to file Form W-2c, Corrected Wage and Tax Statement, with the Social Security Administration (SSA) to correct any name, SSN, or money amount error reported to the SSA on Form W-2. If your name and SSN are correct but are not the same as shown on your social security card, you should ask for a new card that displays your correct name at any SSA office or by calling 1-800-772-1213.

Credit for excess taxes. If you had more than one employer in 2009 and more than $6,621.60 in social security and/or Tier I railroad retirement (RRTA) taxes were withheld, you may be able to claim a credit for the excess against your federal income tax. If you had more than one railroad employer and more than $3,088.80 in Tier II RRTA tax was withheld, you also may be able to claim a credit. See your Form 1040 or Form 1040A instructions and Publication 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

(Also see Instructions for Employee on the back of Copy C.)

Instructions for Employee (Also see Notice to Employee, on the back of Copy B.)

- Box 1. Enter this amount on the wages line of your tax return.
- Box 2. Enter this amount on the federal income tax withheld line of your tax return.
- Box 8. This amount is not included in boxes 1, 3, 5, or 7. For information on how to report tips on your tax return, see your Form 1040 instructions.
- Box 9. Enter this amount on the advance earned income credit payments line of your Form 1040 or Form 1040A.
- Box 10. This amount is the total dependent care benefits that your employer paid to you or incurred on your behalf (including amounts from a section 125 (cafeteria) plan). Any amount over $5,000 is also included in box 1. You must complete Schedule 2 (Form 1040A) or Form 2441, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, to compute any taxable and nontaxable amounts.
- Box 11. This amount is (a) reported in box 1 if it is a distribution made to you from a nonqualified deferred compensation or nongovernmental section 457(b) plan or (b) included in box 3 and/or 5 if it is a prior year deferral under a nonqualified or section 457(b) plan that became taxable for social security and Medicare taxes this year because there is no longer a substantial risk of forfeiture of your right to the deferred amount.
- Box 12. The following list explains the codes shown in box 12. You may need this information to complete your tax return. Elective deferrals (codes D, E, F, and S) and designated Roth contributions (codes AA and BB) under all plans are generally limited to a total of $16,500 ($11,500 if you only have SIMPLE plans; $19,500 for section 403(b) plans if you qualify for the 15-year rule explained in Pub. 571). Deferrals under code G are limited to $16,500. Deferrals under code H are limited to $7,000.

However, if you were at least age 50 in 2009, your employer may have allowed an additional deferral of up to $5,500 ($2,500 for section 401(k)(11) and 408(p) SIMPLE plans). This additional deferral amount is not subject to the overall limit on elective deferrals. For code G, the limit on elective deferrals may be higher for the last 3 years before you reach retirement age. Contact your plan administrator for more information. Amounts in excess of the overall elective deferral limit must be included in income. See the "Wages, Salaries, Tips, etc." line instructions for Form 1040.

Note. If a year follows code D through H, S, Y, AA, or BB, you made a make-up pension contribution for a prior year(s) when you were in military service. To figure whether you made excess deferrals, consider these amounts for the year shown, not the current year. If no year is shown, the contributions are for the current year.

- A—Uncollected social security or RRTA tax on tips. Include this tax on Form 1040. See "Total Tax" in the Form 1040 instructions.
- B—Uncollected Medicare tax on tips. Include this tax on Form 1040. See "Total Tax" in the Form 1040 instructions.

- E—Elective deferrals under a section 403(b) salary reduction agreement
